

OUR CORE VALUES

At Gary Alpert Financial Strategies, our mission is to enable financial peace of mind by providing reliable service, honest communication, and a strong level of competence. We address financial questions in a comprehensive, thoughtful, and straightforward manner.

Commitment

We have the utmost commitment to our clients achieving their goals.

Communication

Clients want a periodic and honest depiction of where they stand while being made aware of opportunities and risks. Clear and regular communication is our bedrock, both amongst ourselves and between us and our clients.

Dependability

We are expected to honor our commitments in a timely manner both amongst ourselves and with our clients.

Honesty

We will always be honest with each other and with our clients. In doing so there should be no doubt that we can do everything that we represent we can do.

Thoughtfulness

We will always contemplate all options and never rush to quick decisions.
